

The Invisible two headed monster!

Chapter 1

Secret Box!

This Mythical story starts, in a far away town that looked like a Ghost town until the morning. In this town there was a king and queen that lived a happy life. Next to the queen and king lived a young boy with his little sister a mum and a dad. The boy had his grandma and his grandad over. His grandma told him ancient stories of hero's saving the world. The boy's name was Jack. One day Jack wanted to be the one to save the world, and he believed that because he heard of a two headed monster that lives at the top of mount Everest. He knew he would have to wait a long time though because he was just an 8-year-old boy. Later that night, he heard his mum, dad, grandma and grandad taking about him and how he is well behaved. His mum came up to check if he was sleeping so he pretended to sleep. His sister was still awake after crying for a whole hour without stopping. He didn't really care though his sister was only 1 week old.

On the next day, he found an old, rusty and dirty box lying on the floor in the basement. Jack had never been in the basement before this was his first ever time. When he opened the box, he instantly got superpowers, but he didn't notice. For Jack it was like nothing happened.

Chapter 2

Superpowers

After a few hours of wondering what happened, Jack went out of the basement. He went to go have breakfast. For breakfast he had fried egg on toast with sausage and chips. Later after breakfast, Jack went out to go to school. He walks to school by himself because his school was across the road. Then after he finished school, he came home and played with his miny figure toys. After that, he went out to the closest park and played with his friends. His mum and dad worked for the queen, so Jacks family was rich. Jack played with his friends for hours and hours before he came home. Jack was anyway allowed out until at least 6pm. When he came home from the park, Jack had dinner like normal, but he still didn't know that he had superpowers. Jack finally found out that he had superpowers, he had three, but he only found out one of the three. The one he found out was invisibility. Later that night, everything was normal again, but the only thing was that his sister was crying yet again. Sure, Jack got irritated, but his sister was only a baby.

Second superpower

In the morning, Jack learnt how to control his invisibility power. He could control it because he didn't sleep that night. He went downstairs to have breakfast. Jack was so tired that he fell asleep in the middle of breakfast than, later he fell asleep in a test which was very bad. The teacher went to Jack's house to tell his mum about what had happened at school. As soon as Jack came home, he wasn't allowed out his house until he got some sleep. When Jack woke up, he found out he slept until the next day. Today was finally Friday, Jack's school started weekends on a Friday so children go even more homework than other schools, but that is why Jack liked it he was the smartest kid in his class at every single subject. That's why he is treated kindly not badly. When Jack had finished his homework, he went to knock on his best friends, door to see if he could come over. His friend came over and Jack told him about his superpower and even showed him so that he would believe. Jack kept it a secret from nearly everyone. When his friend left, he found out another superpower. This time it was the power of lightning. Again, he stayed up all night without sleeping. The next day was Saturday so he was fine he didn't have to go to school. He went back into the basement to check out the box again. This time the whole box lite up and was a whity, yellowy colour. He wen out and told his mum he was going to his friends, house. He knocked on his friends, door and grabbed him by the arm.

Chapter 4

Box mission!

Jack and his friend went into the basement and Jack showed him what made him get these powers. His friend was amazed at how a, old and rusty box could do such a thing. Jack kept it a secret between him and his friend. They searched the town to see if they could find any more boxes to see if they would do the same. As you would have guessed no other box was like Jack's box in the basement. Jack told his friend that hopefully he doesn't get anymore powers. After two days, Jack had to go back to school. He told his mum and dad that he didn't want to go to school today, so he lied and said that he was sick. Mum believed him and he didn't go to school that day, but his dad said tomorrow he would have to go to school. The parents walked to his school and told them that Jack was ill. After that day, Jack was scared to go to school he tried lying again but it didn't work this time after finding out he was faking. Jack still didn't tell his parents the truth and went to school trying not to be afraid. That day he came home from school with an A+. His parents weren't really impressed as 90% of the time he got an A+. After a while, Jack's parents were aware that something had to be going on. Jack's parents went to Jack to ask him if anything was wrong at school, of course Jack lied and said no so the mum and dad went to talk in the kitchen by themselves when Jack went to bed. He could hear them speaking saying stuff like what is up with Jack. After 3 hours of no sleep he eventually fell asleep. In the morning Jack didn't know how to stop this he has already done a box mission.

Chapter 5

Silent Month

It was the next day when the day went completely quiet. Jack was really finding this day wired. As Jack packed to go to school no one said bye and when he came back no one said hi. He got another A+ in his subjects. He didn't know what to say so he just said hi but no response. He didn't know what else to do. Just as Jack thought that, he had an idea. He went down to the basement to see if he had any other power. He did have another power it was to freeze time so that only Jack or someone touching him would be able to still move when he freezes the time. When he went to school on the 2nd day, of the week even the teachers were frozen so now he knew he had to learn how to control this power. After Three days now with no sudden movements Jack kept getting more boarded as the days passed. Half a month later, Jack didn't know what to do. He told himself that if he didn't learn how to control the power he wouldn't get an A+ anymore because of no learning, he tried to teach himself but that didn't work.
